

Welcome to October!

On October 24th, we will be celebrating Oktoberfest with a special luncheon. We will be serving Kielbasa Sausage with Sauerkraut or Fried Pork Schnitzel with Mushroom Gravy. Sides are: German Potato Salad, Seasoned Green Beans, Cucumber & Tomato Salad, Dinner Rolls, and Dessert. Always a good time when you can celebrate with your Azalea community.

Upcoming Fun

Our Azalea monthly Flea Market is always an event that the residents look forward to. Wednesday, October 29th at 1:30 p.m. will be our next flea market where residents can shop for items such as toothpaste, notepads, tissues, snacks, lotion, etc.

5 Signs it May Be Time for Senior Living

If you or a loved one are wondering whether it's the right time to transition, here are some key signs:

5 Signs it May be Time for Senior Living

01
Difficulty Maintaining the Home
Chores and repairs feel overwhelming.

02
Decreased Social Interaction
Days go by with little to no meaningful social contact.

03
Changes in Health or Mobility
Small challenges (stairs, driving, cooking) are becoming bigger obstacles.

04
Unpredictable Expenses
Rising costs of home maintenance and healthcare are straining finances.

05
Desire for More Freedom
The idea of travel, hobbies, and carefree living feels appealing—but current responsibilities get in the way.

Meet Evelyn Gibbs

Evelyn Gibbs is an Azalea Certified Med Tech (CMA). She goes above and beyond for the residents that call Azalea home. Her work motto is, "I do for the residents exactly like I would want someone to do for my parents if they lived here." Evelyn has worked for Azalea for eight years. She is outstanding in every way. We all know if Evelyn is here it is going to be a good day. Thank you, Evelyn, for your hard work and dedication.

Resident: Mr. Weyman Bryant, one of the many residents that benefit from Evelyn's excellent care.
